10. HIGHWAYS MATTERS –
 - (a) Condition of the road during maize cutting in October – T Perkins summarized the issue. Local resident wrote to the PC asking for the council's thoughts on recent problems with agricultural traffic particularly on the road between Wrentnall and Longden Common. On 26 November this was discussed and it was agreed the Parish Council's Traffic Working Group would consider this issue as part of their existing remit to investigate traffic within the parish and report their findings to local residents. The Parish Council takes speeding and other traffic incidents through the village and in the parish seriously and they are currently members of the Shropshire Council Agricultural Reference Group looking at these issues and will report back when appropriate

W H Higgins rejoined the meeting
